David – I think Monday will work if we can't talk Thursday afternoon. I will try to send you our comments in writing as soon as they are prepared so IR has a chance to review if we can't talk until Monday. We are trying to move things forward as quickly as possible, and my management would like us to be able to tell the public at our meeting next Wednesday that we are moving these agreements through sign-off. One item we will want to see included with the work plan is a schedule of submittals and activities. We are expecting to see tight time frames to ensure completion of the work this fall/early winter. If IR is already working on the QAPP, then we will want to decrease the time for submitting the QAPP to 15 days from the effective date of the AOC.

Thanks-Jacquie

Jacquie:

I am out of the office but picked up your VM. I have sent a note asking if the IR folks can talk to you tomorrow afternoon, but their schedules tend to be pretty crazy, so we'll see. Would Monday work if Thursday can't?

I know I also owe you a response on the AOC, but we haven't had time to hash out the internal issues. Again, nothing major other than the timing of the various deliverables that you and I discussed.

I will try to get back with you later today if I hear something.
